The conference agenda is still being built, but we can tell you that in light of on-going confrontations and devastating and perhaps preventable injuries occurring to repossessioners because of debtor contact, one of the most influential speakers on de-escalation and reading body language, Mr. Joe Navarro, will be returning this year as a speaker! Navarro spent 25 years with the FBI as an agent and supervisor in counterintelligence and counterterrorism. "Today, Joe is recognized as one of the world's foremost authorities on the application and use of nonverbal communications in business."
